Particulars of organization, functions and duties

Objectives:

The eminent scholars under the Government of India under the guidance of His Holiness The Dalai Lama had framed following objectives which the University has been carrying on for over three decades (this may kindly be read in conjunction with the objectives of the University as contained in clause 3 of the Memorandum of Association (1988) of CUTS Society:

- To Preserve the Tibetan culture and tradition.
- To restore ancient Indian sciences and literature preserved in the Tibetan Language, but lost in the original.
- To offer an alternative educational facility to students of Indian border areas who formerly availed the opportunity of receiving higher education in Tibet.
- To accomplish gains of teaching and scope of research in traditional subjects in a framework of the modern University system of education with the provision for award of degrees in Tibetan studies.

Brief History

The Central University of Tibetan Studies (CUTS) (Deemed University) is unique University of its kind in India which was originally established in 1967 under the kind aegis of Pt. Jawahar Lal Nehru in consultation with His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama with a view to educate the youths of Tibet and the Himalayan border region.

The University while initially functioning as constituent wing of Sampurnanand Sanskrit University, Varanasi became an autonomous body under the then Department of Culture, Ministry of Education, Govt. of India in 1977. The march of excellence carried out by the University got further recognized in terms of Govt. of India granting status of “Deemed University” to it on 5th April, 1988. Until 2000, the University was headed by Ven. Samdhong Rinpoche, the Ex Prime Minister of the Tibetan Government in Exile. The University is currently headed by Padmashri Prof. Geshe Ngawang Samten, Vice Chancellor, supported by learned faculty members of the University in achieving its goal of excellence in the field of Tibetology, Buddhology and Himalayan Studies.

In addition to its regular educational and teaching programme, the University has been equally associated with its research programme pursued by its own research scholars and many visitors from other academic Institutions in India abroad. In this context, the University provides a giant platform for interaction between Buddhist and non-Buddhist Indian Philosophical schools; between Buddhist and Western Philosophers; and between Buddhist scholars and scientists.
