

Departmental Library of CTE

The departmental library of Centre for Teacher Education is primarily aimed to provide book facilities to teachers and students of this department. Grounded on that all the book collection of this library is constructed and is mainly based on the subjects which are associated with the syllabus of four-year integrated B.A.B.Ed and two-year B.Ed.

Is a key resource for students and faculties of this department. The total collection of departmental library comprises of 6624 volumes with 1578 titles, 605 textbooks and 1000 reference books. Among which more than 1000 books are in Tibetan language, about 200 are in Hindi language and rest are in English language. Tibetan language book comprises of subject like, Tibetan language, Tibetan literature, Tibetan history, Buddhist philosophy and dialect whereas Hindi medium book includes Hindi language and literature. Likewise, Geography, history, pedagogy, psychology, botany, political science, economics, physics, chemistry, biology, zoology, mathematics and English literature are in English medium.

Apart from that few volumes of dictionaries and encyclopaedias are also in the list. All these collections are mainly focused on teacher education. Although there is a vast collection of books in departmental library but still to provide a better service to its reader and to make the collection of library upgraded, the book procurement of newly arrived educationalist book are done every year. Since there is also a central library in university premise then the journal facilities are available in central library.

Due to and book not only and this but also of other take interest this the great varieties of collection, the students teachers of department the readers department keen in using library facilities. Currently there are more than 125 active members who are accessing the facilities of departmental library.

BOOK COLLECTION OF DEPARTMENTAL LIBRARY

