

4-5 March 2023 : A two-day international seminar entitled “Kavita in the Land of Buddha” was organized under the joint aegis of Premchand Sahitya Sansthan, Gorakhpur and the Department of Classical and Modern Languages, Central Institute of Higher Tibetan Studies. Chief Guest, Prof. Radha Ballabh Tripathi expressed his views on the topic ‘Samvada Purush Buddha’ in the inaugural session of the symposium on 4th March 2023 and said that even the biggest problems can be solved through dialogue and peace can be established.

Buddha also solved many problems by talking to people. Breaking of dialogue gives rise to anger. This is the root of courage. The path of Buddha can also establish peace in the world. Special guest, Prof. Anand Kumar said that at present goodwill is being eroded. Its weight has given birth to hatred towards others. Its eradication is also possible through the kindness and compassion of Buddha. Presiding over the seminar, Prof. Wangchuk Dorjee Negi said that through compassion, kindness and love, harmony and peace can be established in the entire world. Welcome note was delivered by Prof. Sadanand Shahi, Dr. Ramsudhar Singh convened the seminar and vote of thanks was given by the Registrar of the institute, Dr. Himanshu Pandey.
