

WORKSHOPS AND SHORT TERM COURSE ORGANIZED UNDER PMMMNMTT SCHEME, MHRD, GOVT. OF INDIA

SoE/CTE, Central Institute of Higher Tibetan Studies (Deemed University), Sarnath, Varanasi (UP)

Keeping the objectives and intentions of PMMMNMTT Scheme of MHRD in the backdrop, School of Education/CTE, CIHTS has conducted two workshops and one guest lecture for its student-teachers and teaching faculties on the need of the present-day education scenario.

On 24th October, 2018: One-day workshop on “Education and How Children Learn” conducted by Shri Karma Chungdak, Former Director of Sambhota Tibetan Schools Society and current Secretary of Tibetan Homes Foundation Schools, Mussoorie. The workshop was tailored to train the student-teachers to familiarize the education system of Tibetan schools spread all over India and Nepal. Hence, the day long workshop began with a brief introduction on different Tibetan schools, its positive sides and on major issues that needs to be improved. The rest of the workshop dealt especially on education and how children learn.

On 30th and 31st October, 2018: A two-day workshop was organized for the student-teachers and teacher educators of CTE. As a resource person, Professor K Dorasami, a renown educationist from Regional Institute Mysore has conducted the workshop on the broad theme “Educational Philosophy and Pedagogy Trends”. The intended idea was to broaden the overall perspective on education. As it often occurs that when one deals with practicality of any idea the philosophical aspects, the base on which it stands, tends to get sidelined. Keeping this key idea in mind he proceeded to introduce key pedagogical trends that has emerged in recent days.

On 1st November, 2018: Professor Anjali Bajpai, Faculty of Education, BHU has delivered a guest lecture on the theme, “Role of School and Teacher in improving the quality environment”. With her years of experience in both teaching and researches, she has educated the student-teachers and teacher educators on the importance and impact of quality environment, we have almost forgotten, and the roles of school and teacher in sustaining the quality environment for betterment of future generation.

SHORT TERM COURSE

on

“Pedagogical Approaches for Professional Development of Teachers and Teacher Educators”

Held during 16-21 November 2018

Aiming to provide an intense training on professional development of teachers and teacher educators at secondary level and for college and university faculty, a five-day short term course on “Pedagogical Approaches for Professional Development of Teachers and Teacher Educators” held during November 16-21, 2018 at SoE/Center for Teacher Education, Central Institute of Higher Tibetan Studies, Sarnath, Varanasi.

Speaking on the inaugural ceremony Prof. Geshe Ngawang Samten, Hon’ble V.C., CIHTS, Varanasi has highlighted the importance of Professional Ethics in teaching profession. He presented the glimpses on Buddhist perspective on professional ethics. He explained, human being in this liquid society is interdependent to each other, and compassion is the instrument to reduce the internal negativities and develop the positive mental attitude. It helps the teachers to develop the cooperative attitude, instead of “I do” attitude. He highlighted that in 21st century, all information are available at the click of a mouse for students, it made the teaching a very challenging profession.

Prof. K.P. Pandey, Director SHEPA and former V.C., MGKVP, Varanasi had delivered three lectures on the topic as “Towards effective teaching-learning exploring needed competencies”, “Research based new pedagogical approaches”, and “Management of teaching learning”. On the topic ‘management of teaching learning’ he explained in details the different approaches to classroom management and the organizational management.

Prof. Wangchuk Dorjee Negi, CIHTS, spoke on “An introduction to mind and kinds of mind”, in Buddhist philosophy. Dr. Ramesh Chandra Negi, CIHTS, trained the participants on “Buddhist Meditation”.

Prof.

Kalpata Pandey, MGKVP, Varanasi, presented a lecture on “Direct and Indirect instructional strategies”. Prof. Anjali Bajpai, BHU, Varanasi, gave a lecture on “Evaluation formats for enhancing quality of teaching learning”.

The event was basically designed to bring the secondary school teachers and university teachers on a single platform and share the information on teaching strategies needed for effective learning process. 38 teaching faculties participated in this short term course from various states of India.

SoE/CTE, CIHTS under the PMMMNMTT Scheme, MHRD has organized this short term course