Sir/Madam,

This has reference to the trailing mail regarding Rajya Sabha Unstarred/Starred Dy. No. S4447 to be placed on 12/12/2024.

In this context, the information pertaining to the CIHTS, Sarnath is as follows:

The Central Institute of Higher Tibetan Studies (CIHTS) in Sarnath, Varanasi is actively engaged in the preservation and digitization of ancient surviving canonical texts of Tibetan Buddhism in the classical languages including Pali. As envisaged in the objectives mandated for the Institute, the Institute has conducted documentation, cataloguing, digitization and preservation of ancient texts of classical languages such as Sanskrit, Pali, Newari and Bhoti/Tibetan, the details of which is as follows:

The efforts being made by the Institute for preservation and development of Pali language:

1. 413 titles of Pali Buddhism are documented in the Library collection.
2. Though the mandate of the Institute is to preserve and restore lost Sanskrit canon from Tibetan, yet it houses 2172 digitized works in audio, video and CD-ROMs; 80,000 titles in microfiche and micro films; 250 GB rare books in digital forms, 4421 GB Buddhist digital manuscripts in microfiche and microfilm format, 260 GB of news clippings, 1244 GB audio and 3126 GB video content in classical languages.
3. In order to collaborate with Pali scholars from different parts of the world, the Institute organised an International Conference with the participation of scholars from Shri Lanka, Thailand, Hong Kong, Belgium including India.
4. The Institute is in the process of signing MoUs with the other Universities/ Institutions especially in South & South-East Asian countries in order to nourish Pali studies.
5. In order to disseminate Pali studies and also translate different Buddhist scriptures in Pali language the Pali Unit of our Institute has offered one year "Translator Training Programme" in Pali which was funded jointly by the Gaden Phodrang Institute in Dharamshala and CIHTS, Sarnath.
6. The Institute is publishing the ancient Pali texts and commentaries in printed form.
7. The Institute has also planned to translate the whole Pali Tripitaka into Tibetan Language under a joint project
8. CIHTS is offering following academic programmes in Pali
  - i) The Institute has offered a One-year Diploma programme in Pali Studies and Theravada Buddhism.
  - ii) MOOC programs that include Pali studies, such as the Abhidhamma (Pali) course. This course provides a comprehensive study of the origin and development of Abhidhamma, explanations of concepts based on Abhidhamma, and insights into the mind-body relationship, serving as a framework for meditation practices.
  - iii) The Institute also runs workshops and training programs on Pali language and South Asian scripts e.g. Burmese from time to time.

Thanking you,
